

A GREAT

Hib. 7. 641. 31

CONSPIRACY

By the Papists in the Kingdome of

IRELAND,

Discovered by the Lords, Justices, and Counsell at DUBLIN and Proclaimed there O^{thob.} 23.

1641.

Which Proclamation was sent to the PAR-LIAMENT here in ENGLAND

And read before the Lords and Commons in Parliament on Munday Novemb. 1. 1641.

Whereunto is annexed the Copy of a Letter written with the Kings owne hand, and sent to Mr. Nicholas, Clarke of the Counsell from

EDENBURGH

O^{thob.} 18. 1641.

LONDON, Printed for J^{hn} Thomas. 1461.

A GREAT CONSPIRACY

By the Papists in the Kingdom of

IRELAND

Discovered by Sir John Temple and General

James O'Connell

Which Proclamation was made by the

LIAMONT here in ENGLAND

As recorded in the Book and Common Prayer Book in

Many Places in 1641

535-97

As he is annexed to the

for written with the Kings of England and to the Kings of the

EDENBURGH

Oct. 13. 1641

LONDON: Printed for J. Widdowes, 1641

BY THE

LORDS JUSTICES, AND

Councell at Dublin in Ireland,

Octob. 23. 1641.

W. Parsons, Io. Burlacie.

These are to make known and published to all his Majesties good Subjects in this Kingdome of Ireland, That there is a Discovery made by Us the Lords, Justices, and Councell, of a most disloyall and detestable Conspiracie intended by some evill affected Irish Papists, against the lives of Us the Lords, Justices, and Councell, and many others of his Majesties faithfull full Subjects universally throughout this Kingdome, and for the seizing not onely of his Majesties Castle of Dublin his Majesties principall Fort here, but also of the other Fortifications of the Kingdome. And seeing by the great goodnesse and abundant mercy of Almighty God to his Majesty and this State and Kingdome, these wicked Conspiracies are brought to light, and some of the Conspirators committed to the Castle of Dublin by us, by his Majesties authority, so as those wicked and Damnable Plots, are now disappointed in the chiefe parts thereof: Wee therefore have thought fit hereby not onely to make it publicly knowne for the comfort of his Majesties good and loyall Subjects in all parts of the Kingdome, but also hereby to require them, that they doe with all confidence and cheerefulnesse betake themselves to their owne defence, and stand upon their Guard, so to render the more safety to themselves and all the Kingdome besides, and that they advertise us with all possible speed of all occurrences which may concerne the peace and safety of the Kingdome, and now to shew fully that faith and Loyalty which they have alwayes shewen for the publike service of the Crowne and Kingdome, which we will value to his Majesty accordingly, and a speciall memory thereof, will be retained for their advantage in due time, and wee require that great care be taken that no Levies of men be made for forraigne Service, or any man suffered to march upon any such pretences. Given at his Majesties Castle at Dublin, 25. Octob. 1641.

The

The Names of those Lords Iustices, and Counsellours in the Castle of Dublin, at the dating of this Proclamation.

Robert Dillon.
Robert Digby,
Adam Loftus.
Iohn Temple.
Thomas Rotheram.
Francis VVilloughby.
James VVare.
Robert Meridith.

God save the King.

A Copy of a Letter written with the Kings owne hand to Mr. Nicholas, Clarke of the Counsell, bearing date from Edenburgh, 18. Octob.

1641.

Heaere it is reported that at my retourne
 I intend to alter the Government of the Church of England, and to bring it to that forme as it is here. Therefore I command you to assure all my Servants, that I will be constant to the Discipline and Do-ctine of the Church of England established by Queene ELIZABETH and my Father, and that I resolve by the grace of God to dye in the maintenance of it.

Charles Rex.

From Edenburgh
Octob. 18. 1641.

FINIS.

